Wisconsin Ave N to Bradley Blvd

Left on Bradley for 3.5+ miles (passing lights at Wilson, Huntington Parkway, and Fernwood)

Right on Burdette (there is a traffic light at this intersection)

First left off Burdette is Armat Drive (not well lit) -- if you get to stop sign and are facing the Woods Academy, you've gone too far

From VA

Take Beltway to River Rd

Exit towards DC and then get over to far left immediately

Take Burdette for about 1-3/4 miles; you will get to light at Bradley Blvd

Continue on Burdette across Bradley

Depending on where you are coming from, either take River Road to Burdette (per the VA instructions) or Wisconsin to Bradley (per the DC instructions). I can offer you other routes if you are coming from outside the Beltway - just let me know.
